

Warranty Information

Scorpion Spray-on Bed Liner Warranty

The Scorpion Bonded Truck Bed liner sprayed onto your vehicle is warranted to be free of defects in materials and application for the life of your vehicle. No maintenance or service is required. Should Scorpion Bonded Truck Bed Protection fail as a result of a materials or application defect, the issuing dealer will repair the damaged area of the Scorpion Bonded Truck Bed Protection at no charge. If the product can not be repaired, the entire purchase price of the bed liner will be refunded by your Scorpion Bonded Truck Bed Protection dealer, and the spray-on warranty will be voided.

This Warranty does not cover gouges, scratches, or punctures. Modification or alteration after application which increases susceptibility to damage, and damage caused by hazardous commercial or industrial use or service are excluded from this warranty coverage. Fading with age, normal discoloration and damage caused by industrial or motor vehicle accidents are also excluded from Warranty coverage. This Warranty coverage is not transferable.
